- Be directly related to a bodily condition.
- Be aimed at specific, not general, physical or mental improvements.
- Expenses were incurred on or after the beginning of the plan year.
- Care was for the participant or a spouse or tax dependent of the plan participant.

Examples of eligible expenses include:

- Deductibles (the part of covered expenses you pay before the plan pays any benefits).
- Coinsurance amounts (the percent of covered expenses you must pay, if any, after the deductible requirement has been met).
- Dental expenses, such as exams or other services.
- Vision care expenses, such as eye examinations and eye glasses.
- Hearing-care expenses, including hearing examinations and hearing aids.
- Routine physical examinations.
- Other medical expenses qualifying as legitimate deductions for federal income tax purposes under Section 213 of the IRS Tax Code.

- The total amount of expenses claimed for the plan year cannot exceed the earned income of the lower-paid spouse for the year.
- Expenses are incurred for child care during working hours.
- Your spouse must work or attend school full time, or you must be unmarried.
- The children are age 12 or younger on the date services are rendered.
- Caregiver is not your spouse or your child under age 19.
- Caregiver cannot be an eligible dependent exemption on your federal return if over age 18.
